The University of Nebraska–Lincoln is an equal opportunity educator and employer with a comprehensive plan for diversity.

The Personal, the Political and the Patriotic

No Limits Conference 2007

Reclaiming and celebrating the possibilities of dissent through artistic expression and political activism

Women’s & Gender Studies

NO LIMITS Student Conference

March 30 & 31, 2007

University of Nebraska–Lincoln
Nebraska Union and Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery

Keynote speakers:

tatiana de la tierra: Born in Villavicencio, Colombia and raised in Miami, Florida, tatiana de la tierra is an award-winning bilingual bicultural writer whose work focuses on identity, sexuality, lesbian phenomenology, and South American memory and reality. Her works include For the Hard Ones: A Lesbian Phenomenology / Para Las Duras: Una fenomenología lesbiana, Porcupine Love and Other Tales from My Papaya, and Píntame una mujer peligrosa.

Amy Miller: A graduate of UNL’s School of Law, Miller has been ACLU Nebraska’s Legal Director since 1999. Her legal and legislative work include all areas of constitutional rights, ranging from basic healthcare for prisoners to the rights of GLBT people to racial profiling by police and separation of church and state.

For registration information contact us at nolimits2007@unl.edu or visit our website at http://www.unl.edu/womenssp/events/nolimits.shtml

Sponsored by UNL’s Women’s Studies Association and the Women’s (and Gender) Studies programs at UNL, UNK, and UNO. Co-sponsored by the Nebraska Arts Council, Office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, Research Council, Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery, University Program Council, Academic Senate, Convocations Committee, Honors Program, Center for Great Plains Study, English Department, Institute for Ethnic Studies, Latino and Latin American Studies Program, and other UNL programs and units.

Free and open to the public