In three words, describe what true leadership looks like to you: Leadership by example!!

If you could do another job for just one day, what would it be and why:
I would go back to being a Police Officer. I loved helping people.

Tell us something that might surprise us about you:
I really love parking management. I am pretty open about myself so there really isn’t much I haven’t told everyone about myself.

Preparing Tomorrow’s Leaders TODAY!

“Before you are a leader, success is all about growing yourself. When you become a leader, success is all about growing others.”
- Jack Welch
Leadership UNK was on the road! We took our annual trip to the Board of Regents meeting. We started our time in Lincoln with a tour of the Nebraska State Capitol. Seven of the ten class members had never toured the Capitol before. Class member Laura Tadlock said she especially enjoyed having the guided tour where the history of the art and architecture of the building was explained. At the Board of Regents meeting, Jon Watts, Dr. Bicak, Chancellor Kristensen, NU President Hank Bounds and Regent Kenny all made a point to come over and personally introduce themselves to the Leadership UNK class. Before the start of the Regents meeting, Chancellor Kristensen asked us to stand as he introduced us to the group. We got to see Dr. Ed Scantling present his study on retention and implications for UNK. Dylan Evans of the UNK IT department was a recipient of the KUDOS award. After the meeting, Chancellor Kristensen met the group for a picture and a discussion where he shared some background on the members of the Board of Regents and the inner workings of the sub committees.

Leadership UNK met on Wednesday for the "Retreat and Personal Growth" session. The day started with a discussion of the "Start With Why" book. Then we watched "Dead Poet's Society" and had a discussion about the leadership styles portrayed in the movie and how we as leaders can help others to find their potential. Chancellor Kristensen met with the class and discussed styles of leadership. Class member Yao Zheng mentioned how much she appreciates that the Chancellor is sincerely caring about the University and his time here. We finished the day with an etiquette luncheon that was led by Scott Benson.
